

THE WINNERS

Are Mrs. Howell in District A, and Miss Delling in District B—Miss Stivers Will Go As Third Member of James-town Party.

BTG VOTE MARKS THE CLOSE.

After three months of good-natured rivalry among the contestants, The Jeffersonian's Jamestown Trip Contest ended Tuesday at noon. Since the last count Mrs. Howell cast 67,796 votes, making her total 113,361. Miss Gray cast 16,790 votes within the past two weeks and her total is 59,812.

In the second division, where the rivalry between Miss Delling and Miss Bates has been very keen, the result was in doubt up until just before the close, when Miss Delling's friends cast an unexpected number of ballots, giving her the lead by over 9,000. Since the last count Miss Delling polled 17,255 ballots, giving her a total of 38,067, while in the same time Miss Bates added 5,560 to her total, making 28,485 votes cast for her. Miss Delling also received the cash prize of ten dollars for the greatest number of subscriptions secured since September 18. Miss Bates brought in the second largest list and was awarded five dollars in cash.

Mrs. Howell has selected Miss Bessie Stivers to accompany her on the trip. The party, in charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barrickman, will leave next Monday evening over the C. & O. railway for Richmond, where a day will be spent in sight-seeing. Leaving Richmond at 7 a. m., October 10, the party will go by steamer to the Jamestown Exposition, reaching there in the afternoon of the same day. Four days will be spent at the Exposition, the Inside Inn, on the Exposition grounds, being the party's headquarters.

On the morning of October 15 the contestants will leave for a daytrip trip up Chesapeake Bay and the Potomac river, arriving at Washington that evening where the party will stay at the Elkhorn Hotel. Three days will be devoted to Washington, and on Friday, October 18, the return trip will be begun. Home will be reached at noon, Saturday, October 19.

In conclusion, The Jeffersonian wishes to thank each contestant for the interest manifested during the contest, and to express its appreciation of the work done by each. Our subscription list now numbers over 1,500 names, a circulation of which we are justly proud. Our one regret is that we cannot send all of the contestants on the trip. We are grateful, too, at the entire absence of bad feeling, those who lost doing so with good grace and without any ill-feeling. To those who won we extend congratulations; to those who lost the consciousness of having done their best should rob defeat of its sting.

FAIR SITE

Of From 125 to 150 Acres Wanted—Secretary Hughes Will Receive Proposals—Until October 10.

At a meeting in Louisville last Friday of the permanent site committee of the Kentucky State Fair, it was decided to advertise for property suitable for State Fair purposes, and the Secretary, R. E. Hughes was instructed to receive bids up to and including October 10. The Jeffersonian publishes Secretary Hughes' advertisement for proposals in another column. A tract of from 125 to 150 acres conveniently located on or near a trolley line or railroad is desired.

Boggs; Board editor, Gross Alexander; Missionary secretary, W. W. Pinson.

The Rev. B. F. Orr, who succeeds the Rev. A. L. Mell at Middletown, is from Trenton, Ky. Mr. Mell goes to Sonora.

BLEW HORN

Of Automobile and Causal Horse to Run Off. Suit For $15,000 Damages Filed By T. K. Pulliam Against Charles G. Strater.

Charles G. Strater, of Louisville, has been sued in the Jefferson Circuit Court by Theodore K. Pulliam for $15,000 damages, alleged to have resulted from a runaway, caused by defendant and his automobile. Pulliam asserts that he was driving a restive horse on the Shelbyville pike, near St. Matthews, on June 18, last, and that Strater, in his auto, sounded the horn on his machine regardless of the fact that he could see Pulliam's horse was badly frightened, and in consequence the animal ran off, breaking Pulliam's leg and making him a helpless cripple for life.

SEVERELY CUT

While Cleaning Cutter Bar of Mowing Machine Shaver Lost And E. B. Felts Is Painfully Wounded.

Valley Station, Sept. 30.—While attempting to clean the cutter bar of a mowing machine which was using a few days ago Elmer B. Felts, a prominent farmer living near here, received injuries of a serious nature which will probably keep him confined to his home for a month or more.

Mr. Felts was cutting hay with the machine in a field near his residence when the cutter bar became clogged and stalled his team. He alighted from the machine and placed himself in a sitting position before the cutter bar on the ground. While in this position and busily engaged in cleaning out the blades, the horses suddenly started forward and Mr. Felts was knocked down and before he could extricate himself he received an ugly cut on the left knee and a painful cut two inches long in the left leg which laid the flesh open to the bone.

He was dragged some distance before members of the family heard his cries and came to his rescue. Dr. S. Foss was called and dressed the injured man's wounds. The family is apprehensive of blood poisoning. Unless such complications arise it is thought the man will suffer no permanent disabilities from the accident. His present condition is not alarming and Dr. Foss the attending physician believes that the wounds, while of a stubborn nature, will heal rapidly.

“DOLLAR WHEAT.”

Price Goes Up Four Cents in Four Days Because of Alleged Shortage in This Year's Yield.

For the past week the price of wheat has been advancing steadily. It was said to a big shortage in this year's crop and Thursday last the market quotation was one dollar per bushel, an increase of four cents over the previous day's quotation. Flour has advanced in sympathy with the wheat market from $8.25 to $8.50 per bushel with the prospect of reaching $6.

The president of one of the largest mills in Louisville says an advance of two cents a bushel in wheat means an advance of ten cents on a barrel of flour.

Wheat is higher now than at any time since 1905. The advance at this time is said to be on account of a big shortage in winter and spring wheat in all wheat growing countries. According to Government crop reports there is a deficit of 100,000,000 bushels in the United States, and of 250,000,000 bushels in the world's crop. The shortage in Europe has caused a strong demand, which is making it self felt in the prices of other cereals, corn, oats and rye selling from ten to twenty cents higher than the market price a year ago.

HARROD'S CREEK

Oct. 1.—The automobile of Henry Strater collided with that of C. T. Ball, Sunday evening, at Glenview, slightly injuring the occupants of the Ballard machine.

W. C. Ingram and wife, of Brownsboro, visited their son, Arthur Ingram, Sunday.

J. M. Wheeler, who has sold his farm between Harrods Creek and Worthington, to Collis Maddox, had a sale of his personal effects last Thursday evening. The wheel will go to Louisville to reside.

Bersot Wilhoyte, of Poplar Grove, Oldham county, has returned to his farm near Prospect.

Mrs. Ella Mae Felts, of Prospect, who for some time has been quite ill with typhoid fever, is very much improved.

The farmers of the community are busy cutting corn. The yield proves to be a large one.

FOUNDER

Of Christian Science Said To Be Competent Business Woman At Eighty-Six Years of Age And Reads Without Glasses.

SKETCH OF HER LIFE.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, was born July 16, 1821, at Sanbornton Bridge, N. H., a few miles from her present home in Concord.

She was married in early life to Major George Glover, their home being in Charleston, S. C. Not quite a year after their marriage, Mr. Glover went to Wilmington, N. C., on a business trip, accompanied by his wife. There he was attacked with yellow fever, and after nine days illness, died, leaving the young widow alone from home with friends.

Mr. Glover having been a Mason, the Masonic Order was very kind to the bereaved woman, one gentleman being appointed to accompany her to her home at Sanbornton Bridge. This gentleman being as faithful as a Mason could be, never left Mrs. Glover until she was safe in the home of her father. Her only son (George Glover) was born at her father's home, where she lived happily until her father, Mr. Baker, married again.

When her boy was eight years of age it became necessary to send him away from home with friends. She selected a family by name of Cheney that she thought well calculated to care for her child. The Chenys became very much attached to her boy and wanted him for their own, so they kept his mother's letters from him, telling him nothing from her son for years, and when she did locate him, she wrote to him: "You are all I have—come and stay with mother and I will let you have all my property, all my real estate. Here is a home up here and a mother waiting for you, if you will only come and live with me." He refused to go. In the year 1859 Mrs. Eddy had a son and furnished a home for her son. February last she put in trust $125,000 for him. About a year ago one of New York's prominent papers published that Mrs. Eddy was dead, and it was being kept from the public. Eleven reporters, all representing different papers, were allowed to go to her home, and for a very short time converse with her. The accusation that her "next friends"—alias "next enemies"—bring against her is, that she is insane and incapable of attending to her own business affairs.

Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton, one of New York's most eminent physicians, and perhaps the most distinguished alienist in this country or abroad, was chosen to examine Mrs. Eddy and give his opinion as to her health and state of mind. He said to a number of reporters, who interviewed him: "I have informed myself in regard to the mental condition of Mrs. Eddy, and for this purpose have examined a large number of letters and documents, perhaps one hundred in all, and have examined her at her home. I found Mrs. Eddy to be an elderly lady of delicate frame. There was, however, no visible indication of any motor symptom of insanity, or nervous disease. There was no tremor, no affection of speech, and aside from a certain amount of slight deafness, I found nothing the matter with her. I am firmly of the opinion that she is competent to take care of herself and manage her affairs." Mrs. Eddy is eighty-six years of age and reads without glasses.

The first edition of Science and Health was published in 1878. Mrs. Eddy founded her first church at New York.

Oct. 1.—Mrs. Jessie Seebolt has returned to her home in Louisville after a week's visit with Mrs. Charles Robb.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bridwell and daughter, Miss Lizzie, of Shepherdsville, spent Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Ed. Miller.

Miss Emma Bates entertained the following young people the first of the week: Misses Mary and Lizzie Miller, Angie Starks, and Messrs. David Crumbacker, Allen Nett and Harry Maple.

Henry Bates, of Louisville, spent Sunday with his brother, W. S. Bates. Mrs. Ed. Miller spent Tuesday with relatives at Mt. Washington.

Mrs. Jennie Hall, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Miss Shaw Hall, of Fern Creek, is visiting Miss Alice Bates.

Clarence Nett, who has been in the United States Army for the past six years, stationed most of the time in the Philippines, is visiting his father, J. P. Nett.

Miss Mollie Smith spent Sunday and Monday with her cousin, Miss Eva Robinson.

Miss Emma Bates entertained a number of guests Sunday.

Mrs. John Gilliland visited her mother, Mrs. Bryant, the middle of the week.

Mrs. Henry Kiser and son, Calvin, visited her mother, Mrs. Cummins, this week.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $10 PER YEAR
PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

Entered as second-class matter June 13, 1907,
at the postoffice at Jeffersontown, Kentucky,
under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1907.

THE price of pies has been advanced in New York, and the Yankees of the metropolis are now forced to diet on baked beans for a breakfast.

Now that most of the farmers have sold their wheat the price of the cereal has gone to one dollar per bushel, in order that the millers may have an excuse for an advance in the price of flour.

UNDER the guise of the Horse Show
Louisville society is exhibiting itself
this week. Woman, lovely woman, serving the same purpose as a model
in a department store, is the medium for a display of the latest styles in dress and millinery, while the horse is but an incident.

THE picture postal card craze
is said to be responsible for the clogged condition of the mails, many of the larger postoffices of the country being compelled to put on additional carriers, and even then the delivery of the mails is delayed. Perhaps this is the reason you are not getting your Jeffersonian promptly.

Sprechen Sie Deutsche?

The Jeffersonian Jeffersonian is running a column in German. That's not fair. Bro. Barrickman ought to say his mean things in plain English. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

Not having the fluent command of language attributed to the present
Mayor of Louisville, plain English
sometimes fails us.

Where the Responsibility Rests.

Three weeks have passed without threats of a strike by the employees of the Louisville Railway Company, nor has there been a tie-up on account of lack of power, but every car that runs on the Interurban lines continues to mix up the races indiscrimi-nately, regardless of the law.

The example of lawless corporations such as the Beargrass Railway is largely responsible for the contempt in which the law is held by so many. There is a regulation of the State Board of Health against spitting in public places, yet who pays any attention to it?

And why should the individual be punished when he infringes on the rights of others when the Interurban Railroad and other corporations can break the law daily, hourly, and escape punishment therefor? Corporations as well as individuals when they ignore the statutes of the Commonwealth should be made to suffer the penalties attached to their violation.

A Federal Judge has at last been found courageous enough to punish the Standard Oil Company for its flagrant lawlessness; why cannot a brave, honest courageous official of Jefferson county be found able and willing to defy corporate influence and compel the officials of the Interurban Railway to obey the provisions of the separate coal law? Why does not the Judge of the Jefferson Circuit Court, criminal division, direct the Grand Jury to indict the officers of the only railroad operating in this county who does not obey the law in this respect? Why does not the Commonwealth's Attorney present the evidence, of which there is an abundance, to the Grand Jury? Why do not the people who daily witness the law's infraction vote for men for public office who will live up to the oaths they are required to take?

The truth of the matter is the people have it in their power to secure an observance of every law upon the statute books, by the election of men who will honestly perform their sworn duty, but they don't do it because of partisan blindness.

"Yellow-dog" Democracy and
"never-scratch-a-ticket" Republicanism are good whips for the use of party nominees but they are mighty poor weapons when it comes to enforcing the Statutes of the Commonwealth.

Less partisan prejudice and more regard for the obligations of public office are desirable in these latter days. More consideration of the man and less of the political brand he represents would result in a better enforcement of the law.

Meador and son, James, have returned from a visit at Hardinsburg.

Mrs. Andy Ernst spent Friday last with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steadly, of the Third street road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilhelm and daughter, Helen, spent Sunday with Mrs. Herma Ellerhost.

K. B. Grah, who was struck by a south bound train, is improving, and now is taking a pleasant trip with his family at South Carolina.

Miss Marcela Kusters has been very sick, but is better at this writing.

Miss Mary De Courcy gave a delicious "fancy" dance last Thursday, and quite a number of her friends attended.

Curtis Meador has returned from a visit to his sister at Hardinsburg.

Fred Grohn and daughter, Dora Stine, spent Sunday afternoon with his sister, Mrs. Jacob Adame.

The Baptist church of Highland Park has been holding revival meetings for the past week or two. Everybody welcome.

There are quite a number of handsome residences going up at this place.

Our graded school has opened.
There were two new homes and one large entertainment room finished for this year. We have five teachers and the principal.

LYNDON

Sept. 30.—Two horses were stolen from Mr. Norborne Arterburn, last Wednesday night. Mr. Arterburn found his horses Friday morning near Cherokee Park.

Mrs. Mildred Osborn is visiting Mrs.
Ela Rudy.

The Ladies' Aid, of Beargrass, will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs.
Beason Here.

Miss Josephine Oesale and Mr.
Frank Rademann will be married October 23, in the Catholic church at St. Matthews.

William Blake Eastland has a nice patch of second crop potatoes growing back of Ben C. Weaver's home.

Mr. Eastland's early potatoes were the finest grown in Warwick Villa, and compared favorably with those raised on richer ground. The Warwick Villa soil between the Westport road and the L. & N. railroad, has always been considered fairly fertile,
but the land lying south of the railroad is clayey, and Mr. Eastland deserves much credit for proving that his vacant lots when properly cultivated are capable of producing something more profitable than goldenrod
and aster.

Mrs. Celia Meguire, of Madison, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. James S.
Rody, of St. Matthews.

Mrs. Booker, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hite, has come to Louisville to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Clendenen.

EASTWOOD

Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson have returned from their wedding trip and are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson.

Miss Cora Bensinger, Clifford and Archie Bensinger, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Levy Saturday and Sunday.

Thomas Curtis, of Mortonville, Ky., was the guest of Miss Mary Blackwell Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pearce, of Valley were the guests of Mrs. Pearce's mother, Mrs. A. J. Sturgeon, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson entertained a few friends Tuesday night.

Misses Lucy Howell and Marla
Coward have returned to Shelbyville
after spending some time with Mrs.
Frank Beckley.

Miss Edythe Sturgeon visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Wood, at Anchorage, several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brengman visited their daughter, Mrs. B. F.
Pearce, last week.

Misses Pearl Duncan and Ida Hawley, of Beard, visited their cousin,
Miss Grace Duncan, last week.

Miss Myrtle Shaw, of Crescent Hill, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr.
and Mrs. John Gilliland.

Little Madeline Harris, who was seriously bitten by a dog at Eastwood,
is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Long and baby, of Macon, Ga., are spending some time with Mrs. Long's mother, Mrs.
J. C. Allen.

Ben Yates who lives on the D. E. Stark farm has seventy-five acres of fine corn, samples of which he left at the office of E. R. Sprowl and Co., this week. One of the ears measures fourteen inches in length and seven and a half inches in circumference. Another is twelve inches long and eight inches around.

Thank Their Friends.

We desire to thank our many friends for the interest taken in our race for The Jeffersonian's trip to Jamestown. We are very grateful indeed and certainly appreciate their kindness.

Very Sincerely,

VIOLA B. HOWELL,
BESSIE STIVERS.

Supper and King For George Zeigler.

Fairmont, Sept. 30.—The family and friends of George Zeigler surprised him with a supper, on Wednesday last, when they presented him with a handsome seal ring. They gave the ring as a reminder of Mr. Zeigler's escape from injury in a recent accident which befell him when his horse was killed and his buggy demolished by a work-car on Baxter avenue, while he remained unhurt, though dragged for a whole block by the car.

Current Events Club.

The Current Events Club met with Miss Camille Semolin last Thursday Mrs. J. G. Davis' paper, "The Houses of Parliament" was very interesting as well as instructive. After a pleasant social hour the club adjourned to meet October 10, with Mrs. J. G. Davis. Those present were Mesdames Wm. Bryan, Wm. Hunsinger, Russell Saively, A. B. Thompson, E. R. Sprowl, V. B. Howell, Misses Carrie Hardin, Florence, Bessie and Allen Bryan, and Blanche and Bessie Cominger.

W. H. Averill Promoted.

Harrod's Creek, Oct. 1, 1907.—W. H. Averill, who has been the manager of the Harrod's Creek exchange of the Cumberland Telephone Company, has been promoted to the management of the Anchorage and Peepee Valley exchanges with headquarters at Peepee Valley. Mr.—Buky, of Louisville, succeeds Mr. Averill at this place. It is with regret that the patrons of the exchange see Mr. Averill depart, as he has made himself very popular during his term of office here.

Dr. Rush Opens Office in Louisville.

Dr. W. M. Rush, who recently graduated as the valedictorian of his class from a Louisville medical school, has opened an office at Preston and Broadway in Louisville. Dr. Rush is a lineal descendant of the famous Dr. Benjamin Rush, who was George Washington's family physician, and is therefore, by inheritance as well as by native ability, altogether likely to make an enviable record as a physician. Dr. Rush will be glad to see his friends at any time, and extends a cordial invitation to call on him when in the city.

Pope McAdams "Arrested."

Jeffersonton was well represented last Saturday afternoon at Fourth and Green streets, Louisville, while the "mysterious Mr. Raffles," of the Louisville Herald, was giving the amateur Sherlock Holmes a chance at the thousand dollars offered for his capture. Pope McAdams who is filling cashier W. H. Ames' place in his bank here while the latter is on his vacation was "arrested" no less than six times by the clever sleuth who fancied they saw in him a strong resemblance to Raffles.

When last observed, McAdams had been "arrested" some more by a couple of good-looking young women who were thoroughly convinced they had the right man and that the Herald's money was due them. McAdams seemed perfectly satisfied too, and no doubt wished he had the right to reward his captors as they expected.

Proposals.

The Permanent Site Committee of the Kentucky State Fair hereby advertises for proposals, of a suitable site for State Fair purposes, permanently. Written proposals will be received up to and including Oct. 10, 1907. Said proposals must be mailed to the undersigned with complete description of the property, number of acres, trolley and railroad connections, with map furnished, and price per acre. Tracts of 125 to 150 acres wanted.

Within the past eight months the committee has made itself thoroughly familiar with price of land in Jefferson county, and the price of all land offered must be in keeping with transfers of the same or similar property made in the past two months.

Nothing but bona fide offers will be considered, and owners must be ready to make deed immediately.

Bethany Church Parsonage Being Repaired and Put in Good Condition For New Pastor—Repairs On Woods' Residence Completed.

Sept. 30.—Albert Williams was the guest of S. J. Groom and family last Saturday.

Miss Pearl Birdwell entertained several guests Wednesday.

The meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society Thursday at Bethany church was well attended. The supper given by the Society, September 21, was very successful, both financially and socially.

Dr. B. L. Wilcoxon has opened a dental parlor in A. L. Woods' residence.

A. L. Woods, who has been repairing his residence, has it about completed. He now has cement walks all around the house and a new iron fence in front. He has also repaired his cottage at Meadow Lawn.

The members of Bethany M. E. Church, South, are repairing the parsonage and building new outbuilding and intend painting the church roof before the new pastor takes possession.

The following spent Saturday and Sunday at Tlago: Misses Carrie and Bertie Groom, Bertie Miller, G. Blakely and S. J. Groom.

Mrs. S. J. Groom is on the sick list.

Losses Pursue.

Pleasure Ridge Park, Ky., Oct. 1.—Mrs. H. A. Burnett, of Louisville, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett, lost her purse as she was returning from the lawn supper given at the Bethany M. E. Church, two weeks ago. The purse contained a gold watch valued at $100, a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, a silver thimble, about $5 in money and several valuable receipts. The purse contained Mrs. Burnett's card and the finder could have easily located the owner.

When Mrs. Burnett discovered her loss, the entire road they had driven over was carefully searched. Mrs. Burnett has given up all hope of finding her purse as she is sure the finder has had plenty of time to return it if he cared to. The watch that was in the purse has been in the Burnett family for years, and it was especially valued on that account.

FAIRMOUNT.

Sept. 30.

Miss Nellie Gallagher has recently returned from a delightful visit to relatives in Lexington, Versailles and Harrodsburg.

Miss Bessie Long after a short but pleasant visit to relatives in Louisville, has returned home.

There is a considerable sickness in the community, C. C. Pegenbush is still quite ill. Roy Sims is very ill and fears are entertained that he has typhoid fever. Dillard Pierson, who has been very ill for several days is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Howard Lyons, after a week of suffering is able to be up though still not well.

Little Miss Abby Gerten, who underwent an operation at Gray Street Infirmary for appendicitis last week is recovering.
